HARMONIOUS MEETING HELD BY PRESIDENT, CONGRESS "BIG SIX"

TWO IMPORTANT ISSUES DISCUSSED BY TRUMAN WITH MAJOR SOLONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—President Truman's first meeting with the congressional Big Six wound up today with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) reporting good results.

The Republican-Democratic legislative conference at the White House lasted 20 minutes longer than scheduled and ended in what all participants said was an atmosphere of good will.

The president and the four Republican and two Democratic leaders called in Maj. Gen. Robert Littlejohn, War Assets Administrator, during one part of the conference dealing with war surplus disposals.

Vandenberg, the senate president, acting as spokesman for the congressional group, after the 50 minute session told reporters: "We had a very pleasant talk with the president about the position."

BILL TO CONTINUE WARTIME TAXES ON LUXURIES OFFERED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—A bill to continue wartime excise taxes indefinitely on such things as liquor, luggage, jewelry and furs was introduced today by Rep. Grant (R-Ind), of the ways and means committee.

Intended at least in part, to make it easier to cut individual income taxes, the measure would provide for all other tax legislation.

It conforms with a recommendation by President Truman and it passed will block an automatic rollback of the excise rates on July 1, thus continuing a $1,500,000,000 annual yield to the treasury.

Prospects of a direct 20 per cent slash in individual income taxes appeared to be fading, although some tax cutting—probably with principal relief for low income groups—is likely.

Ways and Means Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) said the committee may approve the excise continuation bill at its first meeting tomorrow, sending it to the house floor Monday.

Jester Inauguration To Be Greatest Of Texas' Celebrations

AUSTIN, Jan. 16.—(AP)—On the ground and in the air the inauguration of Beauford Jester as the new governor of Texas Tuesday promises to be the state's largest and most spectacular postwar celebration.

From the moment the incoming governor lays his hand on the 107-year-old supreme court Bible until the wee hours Wednesday morning when the last dancers leave five grand scale inaugural balls the capital will be swamped with an estimated 50,000 visitors.

Already filled to capacity by legislators and their families and employees for the recently opened 60th Legislature, Austin faces a housing crisis for the inauguration. However, city officials say everything will come out all right—with the help of the railroads and living space in nearby towns.

A Pullman "Hotel" Planned

A one night hotel will be set up for visitors in Pullman cars furnished by the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad. At least two special trains will provide living quarters for their visiting delegations. Georgetown, 27 miles from Austin, will receive much of the overflow from hotels here.

The inauguration itself will take place on a platform at the south entrance of the capitol. Three hundred state officials and celebrities will sit on the platform. Members of the senate and house will sit in a body on the sidewalks flanking the entrance. Thousands of spectators are expected to crowd the capitol grounds.

First official to be sworn in will be Lt.-Gov. Elect Allan Shivers.

ALL CORSICANA MAY QUIT WORK, ATTEND JESTER CEREMONY

Inauguration Day enthusiasm gripped Corsicana Thursday as the Lions Club began a concerted drive to send droves of citizens to Austin on the special train Jan. 21 to show Texas that the city is behind Beauford H. Jester.

"In the name of the Lions Club I'm asking the merchants and citizens to board up Corsicana on Jan. 21 and declare Beauford H. Jester Day," Sam Werner, president of the club declared today.

As the plans for Corsicana participation in the services at the capital City gathered momentum, it was announced by Werner that Fred H. Harvey, Jr., had been appointed general chairman of the Lions Club parade committee.

Big Parade Scheduled

"Not only are we going to Austin, but we are going to have a parade. The colorful Corsicana Tiger band will lead the local contingent from the train station to the capitol building," Harvey, after receiving his appointment, immediately called M. Nash, general program chairman of Austin, and was notified the Corsicana group would receive a police motorcycle escort as it paraded to the capitol.

Parade features are in the process of being completed by the energetic Lions Club with long banners being painted for use in the procession. The negro delegation will also form part of the parade.

One Pullman Sold

Werner disclosed that one Pullman car had already been sold and it was necessary to add another, tickets for which are already going at a brisk rate, as are chair fares. Other units will be added as will suit the demand.

"We are having a demand," Werner stated flatly.

The special train will be operated by the Southern Pacific on the Hearne and Giddings route. Departure from Corsicana on Jan. 21 will be made promptly at 5 a. m., although the train will be placed on the siding at 4:30 a. m. Arrival at Austin will be at 10 a. m.

BRITISH STRIKE END ANNOUNCED; WORKERS TO RETURN SATURDAY

ACTION FOLLOWS TRUCK DRIVERS' MEETING IN LONDON ON THURSDAY

By TOM WILLIAMS

LONDON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Heads of the Transport and General Workers Union announced today that the 11-day-old London truck strike, involving at least 50,000 men in work stoppages which immobilized the port of London, had ended and the strikers would return to work Saturday.

Unofficially, it was understood that the strikers' demands for a 44-hour week, eight-hour day and the payment of overtime for shifts exceeding eight hours had been granted by the Road Haulage Association, representing the employers.

The vote to return to work was almost unanimous, informed sources reported. The decision was announced after a closed meeting of delegates of the strikers and union officials, marked from time to time by bursts of applause.

More than 100 ships were tied up in the port of London today by a strike of 20,000 dockers and stevedores. They were idle in protest against use of troops to supplement striking truck drivers, whose 11-day-old work stoppage now involves at least 50,000 men.

COLD WAVE BRINGING FRIGID TEMPERATURE TO ALL PARTS TEXAS

By The Associated Press

A cold wave moved southward across Texas today, bringing rain, sleet and snow and the promise of lower temperatures over the entire state tomorrow.

The 17 degrees at Pampa was the minimum recording for the state. Amarillo registered 19.

Rain fell over the north and center of Texas and as far southward as the Austin-San Antonio areas.

Along the coast the weather remained relatively warm and damp. Heavy fog blanketed the coast and extended far inland as San Antonio and Austin.

U.S. STUDYING DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Secretary of War Patterson's office said today that the war and justice departments are consulting "on the whole matter" of the Georgia gubernatorial dispute in so far as it relates to the National Guard.

It was not immediately explained what particular points were of concern. The War Department yesterday described the dispute over who should be adjutant general of Georgia as purely a state affair.

At that time it was explained, however, that while the appointment of an adjutant general was a state matter, any request for the adjutant general to become an officer in the National Guard would require federal recognition.

It was not disclosed whether such a request was made by either of both of the contending forces in Georgia.

Ford Price Slash Hailed As Start Of General Trend

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Government officials today hailed the cut in Ford car prices as an "encouraging" start toward the general price reductions which President Truman has asked of all industry.

Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the president's council of economic advisers, termed the Ford action a "crucial" contribution to sustained high production and employment.

"Ford's statement was made in most careful and reasoned terms—it should appeal to a large business following," said the economist, with reference to yesterday's price-cutting.

"The Ford Motor Company is in Detroit by Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Company."

"Common Sense" Move

"If other manufacturers follow suit, they will make a real contribution to stabilizing business," Ford announced immediate reductions ranging up to $50 on all Ford cars, as a "common sense" move to avert the recession which has been widely forecast for this year.

Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman, former reconversion director, promptly wired Ford that the announcement was "good news for the country and I believe good business for your company."

Members of congress also were quick to applaud.

Congressmen Applaud

Senator Myers (D-Pa) a member of the joint congressional committee on the economic report, described the reduction as "not only smart business but real patriotism."

"Automobile prices, like most prices today, are so far beyond the reach of the average worker that, unless industry bends its efforts

JESTER PLANNING TO ASK WIDER CITY TAX POWER FROM SOLONS

"CORSICANA NEEDS SOME RELIEF" GOV. ELECT SAYS IN STATEMENT

DALLAS, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Governor-elect Beauford H. Jester said today he will recommend to the legislature that authority be granted cities to widen their range of taxation powers.

Mayor Woodall Rogers of Dallas recently led a delegation of officials representing Texas municipalities which outlined a critical financial outlook for cities. Inflation plus abnormal growth of cities have combined to make municipal financing difficult and to be hampered by State laws currently restricting sharply the taxing powers of cities.

Jester told a reporter that he is well aware of this problem. "My own home town (Corsicana) needs some relief," he remarked. His views on the matter will be submitted to the legislature in a special message if it is not included in his formal communication after inauguration.

The governor-elect came to Dallas to address a meeting of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers tonight and to be honored as guest at a luncheon arranged by the Democratic Women of Dallas county.

His Dallas engagements are the last scheduled before his inauguration next week. Jester would not comment in advance on the contents of his inaugural address and his speech to the legislature.

Socialist Aurio Elected President Of French Nation

PARIS, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Vincent Aurio, veteran Socialist leader, today was elected president of the Fourth French Republic at Versailles Palace.

An unofficial count gave Aurio 452 votes with 242 going to the MRP candidate Auguste Champetier de Ribes, 122 to Jules Gueser of the Radical Socialists and 60 to Michel Clemenceau, son of the Old Tiger of France representing the PRL.

The Communists did not advance a candidate, but supported Aurio. The voting was by the combined houses of the new parliament—the National Assembly and the Council of the Republic.

It was the second honor in two days for Aurio, 62, long known as a pacemaker in French politics. He was chosen Tuesday as president of the national assembly.

Aurio's first task was to accept the resignation of Leon Blum, incumbent president for a month and long Aurio's colleague in the Socialist party.

ARNALL OUSTED FROM OFFICE, MANSION IN COUP BY "MILITARY"

PHYSICAL PROPERTIES SEIZED BY ASSEMBLY CLAIMANT AS GOVERNOR

ATLANTA, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Herman Talmadge in a pre-dawn coup backed by National Guard officers and State Highway patrolmen, seized Georgia's executive department today and denied Ellis Arnall admission to either the governor's office or the official residence.

Arnall arrived at his executive office this morning to find Talmadge in the chambers Arnall had occupied all day yesterday. Later when Arnall went to the executive mansion for lunch, he was met by four state patrolmen, who blocked his entry.

"This completes, it seems to me, the capture of the state government as far as physical properties are concerned," Arnall told newsmen.

"Military Infiltration."

"It has been done by gradual military infiltration, so that at the moment storm troopers are in control... you have seen a military coup d'etat seize the governor's mansion, private office and automobile."

Shortly after Arnall made his statement to newsmen and left the mansion, the troopers admitted Mrs. Talmadge and her two children to the residence.

Arnall set up a personal office in the rotunda of the capitol building and announced that his secretarial staff would be moved in to a downtown office building.

He has been governor for the past four years and contends he is still the executive because of what he describes as illegality of legislative action in seizing Talmadge from the term his father, Eugene Talmadge, was prevented by death from accepting. Had Eugene lived he would have been inducted yesterday.

"Military Dictatorship."

Arnall charged that Talmadge was attempting to rule the state under a "military dictatorship."

Talmadge attaches took over the executive chambers early today after local police had been removed from the doors. Arnall had sat in the chambers yesterday while Talmadge occupied another office in the executive suite less than 20 yards away. National Guard officers.

STATE TROOPERS BAR ARNALL FROM HOME; THREATEN "FORCE"

ATLANTA, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Ellis Arnall was denied access to his home today by four state troopers who threatened "force" if he attempted to use his personal key to get in.

Arnall arrived at the mansion at 11:50 a. m. to keep a 12:30 p. m. luncheon engagement and was stopped by the troopers as he walked toward a side door.

"Do you deny me the right to use my key to gain admission?" Arnall asked.

"I have orders to that effect," said Sergeant Frank Jones of the highway patrol.

"What would you do if I tried to get in anyway?" Arnall asked.

"I hate to think what would happen," Jones said.

"We'll see then," Arnall said and strode to the door.

Two state troopers leaped in front of him, and Arnall asked them to get out of his way. They were lying on the sidewalk.

"Will you resort to threats and violence to prevent me from entering?" Sergeant Jones replied. "If necessary."

Arnall asked for the names of the troopers.

Legislature Gets 'Emergency' Measures

Test Of Legislator From Non-Existent District Shaping

AUSTIN, Jan. 16.—(AP)—An effort to elect Phil A. Schraub of Corpus Christi as a member-at-large of the 60th legislature was ruled out of order in the house today.

Schraub, 38-year-old war veteran and attorney, had offered his credentials and requested that the house of representatives seat him as one of its members.

The house voted, however, to print Schraub's appeal in the House Journal as a legal basis for other possible future action on redistricting.

Speaking to a house which had unanimously invited him to present his case as a legislator elected to a non-existent seat, he declared he had been constitutionally elected as a representative by the voters of Nueces county.

Schraub cited two declarations

Representative Nokes took the oath of office as representative from the 58th district of Texas shortly after the legislature convened at noon. He was one of 74 veterans of World War II to be administered the oath of office in an impressive ceremony.

Following his inauguration, Representative Nokes thanked the voters of Navarro county for entrusting the legislative chair to him and pledged his best efforts in the months ahead. "The 50th legislature will be confronted with

3-Man Board Urged For Redistricting Legislature Study

AUSTIN, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Sen. George Moffatt of Chillicothe, chairman of the powerful state affairs committee, today introduced a resolution in the senate proposing appointment of a three-man board to redistrict Texas for legislative representation by a constitutional amendment.

The amendment, which would have to be approved by two-thirds majority of the legislature and passed by the people, would be effective immediately after the 1950 census. After that it would operate automatically.

"Our present system provides that the members of the legislature elect themselves," Moffatt said, "which is much like a doctor operating on himself. He naturally would keep putting it

STEVENSON SUBMITS FIVE PROPOSALS FOR ACTION IMMEDIATELY

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 16.—(AP)—The 50th Legislature today wound up its first week of work and adjourned until Monday.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 16.—(AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson today submitted legislative redistricting and immediate pay raises for rural school teachers as matters for emergency action by the 50th Legislature.

He also asked for immediate amendment of the aeronautics law, establishment of a university for negroes, and said he would submit additional appropriations for state departments that would lead to pay raises for state employees.

Amendment Proposed

A resolution calling for submission of a constitutional amendment designed to finance a building program for all state-supported colleges was introduced in the senate. It would provide for issuance of $10,000,000 in bonds for the University of Texas, $5,000,000 in bonds for Texas A. and M. and a five cent ad valorem tax levy within the 35 cent (per $100 valuation) limit for the 14 other state-supported colleges.

Gov. Stevenson sent the senate all appointments he has made since the last session of the legislature.

The house voted to print in its journal the appeal of Phil A. Schraub of Corpus Christi for a seat representing a district which would exist if the state had been redistricted. An effort to elect him as a member-at-large was ruled out of order.

The house also by unanimous voice vote approved a resolution sharply denouncing what it called an effort by the official publication of the International Teamsters Union to promote a national boycott on cotton.

He said only three departments have applied for deficiency appropriations. The industrial accident board, and the board of directors of A. and M. College.

"The A. and M. directors finally got around to asking for that deficiency appropriation for the establishment of a negro university this week," the governor declared. "Of course now it's too late for me to do anything about it. I can't make deficiency appropriation when the legislature is in session."

The governor said the board asked

Other Auto Makers May Follow Ford In Price Slash

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT, Jan. 16.—(AP)—The Ford Motor Co. slashed car prices yesterday and touched off immediate speculation in trade circles as to whether the action would be followed by its competitors in the low-priced field.

The competitors—General Motors for Chevrolet and Chrysler for Plymouth—withheld comment.

First Cut Since War

The cut, ranging from $15 to $50 on the company's Ford Models only, were the first to be announced by any car maker since the war; they were made in the face of repeated statements elsewhere in the industry that prices nowhere could go still higher before they could be reduced.

Youthful Henry Ford II, president of the Ford company, in announcing the reductions, said they were designed as the "shock treatment"

FIFTEEN MINERS DIE, THREE OTHERS HURT IN PIT GAS BLAST

PLYMOUTH, Pa., Jan. 16.—(AP)—Fifteen miners were killed and three others injured in an explosion last night that wrecked the anthracite colliery operated by the Glen Alden Coal Co. here, trapping some 22 workers 850 feet below the surface.

Edward Griffith, president and general manager of the coal firm which operates the Nottingham colliery, said the blast was discovered by an unidentified foot tender at the bottom of a mine shaft. The man, noting heavy clouds of dust and smelling gas fumes, sounded an alarm, Griffith reported.

Seven Men Saved

Rescue crews, in constant danger of cave-ins because of weakened shoring, rescued seven men after more than three hours of frantic digging. A short while later, Griffith said, the bodies of the 15 dead men—found grouped in a gangway leading from the shaft—were brought to the surface.

Griffith said the company was unable to ascertain the cause of the blast, but he said it was not the result of any fault in the mine.

In the Westmoreland county reports from the scene said only 22 men were in the shaft.

ADVICE ON HOW TO CATCH, KEEP WIFE GETS COLUMNIST BOYLE IN HOT WATER: EVEN HIS OWN MAD

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Dear Horace: You certainly put me in a shooting gallery with your request on how to pick a wife.

The names of husbands haven't quivered over the advice I gave you. But the ladies! When I have got so many letters from outraged damsels that the postman has had to start using an asbestos bag, I still stand by what I said, but I did overlook one little qualification in helping you choose a perfect partner. I forgot to say: "Don't marry a woman who can read."

Own Wife Ried

My own beloved wife now is a nine-year-old child what I told you to avoid.

She was quiet for a minute and then said, "Listen, fringed!" my hair is getting a little thin at that—I ought to send you back to the A. S. P. C. A.

Horace, if you could read all the desperate letters I have received from auburn-haired chain aspirants, I am afraid you would remain a bachelor forever.

"A-I Stinker"

Would you believe I'm boy, but one apparently unwarmed lady in Chicago began her fever-mad note by flaily asserting that I am "an A-I stinker."

"So a man wants a woman who shrinks at a but?" Continued this farcical student of character. "Suppose you go out and find a girl who is a nature suited for one of your tender years."

E. C. MUELLER QUILTS POST AS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MANAGER

E. C. Mueller, manager of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, tendered his resignation today at the regular meeting of the body at 10 o'clock, after serving in his present capacity for two years.

The resignation was accepted with reluctance and regret by the group, which will begin investigating applicants for the position. President John Corley will appoint a committee in the near future.

The resignation is effective March 1 with a two weeks' paid vacation granted during the month of February.

To Enter Business Here. Mueller said he had enjoyed working with the local group and expected to remain in the city and enter business. W. E. McKinney, a member of the board of directors, expressed his regret at the loss of Mueller, declaring his cooperation on the annual fair had been splendid and the position would be hard to fill.

Upon a motion by Robert S. Reading, the proposed vote on the two amendments to the by-laws were tabled for consideration next year and further study suggested. President Corley will appoint a nominating committee to select prospective state of directors for the coming election.

Annual Banquet. The group discussed the coming annual banquet and will consider holding the affair at State Home school if arrangements can be made in order to accommodate more members and guests. D. Hodson Lewis, manager of the Southwestern division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, will be the principal speaker at the dinner to be held at 7:30 p. m., Jan. 28.

Mueller disclosed he had contacted Fred Marberry in relation to the proposed baseball franchise in Corsicana and it is the understanding now the city will not be represented in the East Texas League.

Quick work by the city police department and cool-headed aid from two local women resulted in a window peeper being apprehended Tuesday night.

Officers Kelly and Massey answered a call to the 503 block of North Beaton street where two women reported a window peeper. The women furnished a description and the officers found footprints in the mud outside a window.

Shortly afterwards, armed with the description and another clue, officers made an arrest. The man's shoes fit the footprints, the officers reported, and on the heel one shoe was a star that matched an impression found in the print.

INAUGURATION

At high noon Chief Justice James P. Alexander will administer the oath to Jester. The new governor's inaugural speech will be broadcast from 12:15 to 12:45 p.m. over state-wide radio hookups.

Shortly after the ceremony a flight of planes piloted by members of the Texas Air Reserve Training Detachment at Bergstrom Field will fly over the capitol dome in an aerial salute to the new state executive.

Jester To Lead Parade
Mounting a white horse shipped to Austin from Amarillo for the inauguration, Jester will lead the official parade down Congress Avenue through downtown Austin.

Units of the parade will include the Will Rogers Range Riders from Amarillo, mounted on 100 choice quarter horses, units of the Second Armored Division from Camp Hood, an honor guard from Jester's World War I 90th Division, the Corsicana High School Band, the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band from Abilene, the Texas A. and M. College 25-piece band, and the University of Texas Longhorn Band.

Luncheon At Mansion
Following the parade, outgoing Governor Coke Stevenson will serve the Jester family the traditional first hot meal at the mansion.

Tuesday night there will be a public reception at the capitol, after on celebrants will dance at the five inaugural balls.

One ball, for square dancers only, will be held in the senate chamber. Jester will lead the grand march with his 17-year-old daughter, Joan, at Gregory Gymnasium. Other balls will be in downtown hotels.

Wednesday morning Jester will start his new job—governor of Texas.

Mexico Sending Delegation
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 16.—(AP)—The Mexican government has announced that Secretary of the Treasury Ramon Beteta will head Mexico's delegation to the inauguration of Beauford Jester as governor of Texas on Jan. 21.

Other members of the delegation include Senators Gabriel Ramos Millan and Fernando Magro Soto and Deputy Jose Ricardo Tirado.

A government bulletin said the governors of Chihuahua, Chihuahua and Nuevo Leon had accepted invitations to the ceremonies and that Mexican consul general at San Antonio, Gustavo Ortiz Herandez, had been named to represent the Mexican foreign office.

now to reduce those prices substantially, I am afraid the huge reservoir of purchasing power we expected for our postwar prosperity will be dissipated in the stern problem of just bare necessities," Myers said in a statement.

"I hope industry will accept the president's suggestion to reduce prices voluntarily and so make it unnecessary for congress to devise means of bringing prices down by legislation."

Other Breaks Appear.
(By The Associated Press.)
New cracks in the cost-of-living price structure appeared across the nation today.

Cotton, wheat, butter and some textiles were most vulnerable to the pressure of steadily increasing supplies of essential commodities. Security prices joined in the slide although at a comparatively slow rate.

Inspired in part by talk of consumer resistance to some textile prices cotton futures at New York broke around $4 a bale under heavy selling.

Wheat futures at Chicago plunged as much as 4 cents a bushel at the opening but rallied later. Traders appeared worried by the possibility of too large supplies of the bread cereal later this year.

Top grades of wholesale butter in the New York spot market declined 2 to 2 1/4 cents a pound to 68 1/4 to 68 3/4 cents a pound. Supplies continued to flow to market in heavy volume while buying remained slack.

Today's downturn in prices followed the Ford Motor Co. surprise announcement yesterday of reductions of as much as $50 each for Ford cars.

Thomas Miles, of Plymouth, who was unhurt, recalled he had been at work for about two hours when he asked his laborer, Charles Krawlec of Plymouth (also unhurt) "Everything topsy-turvy?"

"It's 5:45," Miles quoted Krawlec. "He shoved his watch back into his pocket and then it came. There was a terrific explosion. Everything seemed to go topsy-turvy. My place is the second one in from the foot of the shaft. The others who really were caught in the blast were a lot farther in than I was."

"My laborer and I went into the gangway where we saw a couple of men sprawled around. They didn't appear to be injured too badly, so we assisted them to the foot of the shaft."

Props Knocked Down.
It was here that the rescue workers found them.

"We had to help them over rubble and boulders as big as kitchen tables that had been blown into the gangway by the force of the explosion," Miles reported.

"Props were knocked down, and in my chamber the props were twisted and blown from their places."

Rescue workers said 700 feet of gangway had been wrecked by the explosion, actual cause of which is still undetermined.

Carrot-Eating Dogs Fear Rabbits, Too

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.—(AP)—Dogs just like some people you know, have their personal peculiarities. Mrs. Edward Breechbiller's little fox terrier, "Betsy Lee," prefers vegetables to meat. She eats spinach, lettuce, tomatoes, cabbage and creamed onions. She likes to start off the day with a saucer of prune juice, and top off a meal with a cut of apple pie. Her food habits probably have nothing to do with it, but she's afraid of cats.

OH, TO BE IN STYLE!
Of many a mother of cute little girls
I've asked when their daughters start thinking of curls
And hair-do's and ribbons and bonnets and acent
And all that creators of fashions invent?
"Very early," they say. Now I give you the news:
Ellen Elizabeth wants fancy shoes.
A little past five, and her mother reveals,
Already she's pleading for shoes
The man at the store, with a dignified air,
Insisted that flat soles all little girls wear,
But he knew 'twas an argument
Ellen Elizabeth would lose.
Ellen Elizabeth wants fancy shoes.
Oh, is it environment or can it be Hereditary? Will someone tell me?
Are little girls born with a passion for style?
They want to be ladies in such a short while?
How long can the mother such pleadings refuse?
Ellen Elizabeth wants fancy shoes.

LIVING AND SERVING

"Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori" said a Latin proverb of the ancient Romans: "Sweet and fitting it is to die for one's native land." And only too many fine young Americans have thus nobly died. But those who live too seldom find living service of their nation in the political field either sweet or suitable. They consider politics dirty business, and give it as wide a berth as if it were the plague.

Streets are dirty, too, if allowed to collect mud and refuse. But with a little intelligent attention given to good means of getting them clean and keeping them clean they may become beautiful, shining highways. Kitchens get dirty and need constant attention to keep them clean. Vermin, lice, all manner of unpleasant parasites follow dirt. The deadly scourge of typhus fever yields to soap and hot water applied to clothes and bodies.

Politics is no exception to this rule. If clean people, wanting clean, strong government, give attention to it, they will get it. But it takes good citizens constantly watching to make and keep it so.

Good government needs fine, strong intelligent young people willing to serve their nation in its humble places, on its village, town and city councils, its fire and police staffs, its county boards and state legislatures. Surely it should be just as sweet and suitable to serve one's nation living as to die for it. America needs that fine, young, intelligent and devoted service.

CHARACTER WITHOUT AXES

Europeans, in their comments upon the American way of life, are apt to emphasize what they call, in a slightly acid manner, our "worship" of the mechanical contrivances which relieve our lives of many burdens.

In her latest book, "Singing Waters," Ann Bridge refers to electric refrigerators, for instance, as though they loomed up in American lives as large as skyscrapers, whereas in fact they melt unobtrusively into the background of homes, seldom noticed or mentioned, contributing, in their silent way, to health and good food of babies and grown people alike. Observers are mistaken when they assume that frivolity and materialism are the results of living with modern equipment, or that nobility of character automatically follows the necessity of hauling ice and chopping wood.

RELIC OF EARLY MAN

What is the most important country in the world? If this question is asked of a scientist working on the origins of man, he will answer: Java. There at least three different types of early man, some of them verging on the ape, have been found. No where else in the world are there so many.

One of the newest discoveries was made in 1931 but only published a few months ago. Dr. H. R. von Koenigswald, German scientist living in Java, found a jawbone of a new type. He planned to publish the discovery but evidently the need for thoroughness delayed him. War in 1939 found him not ready, and for a long time no word was received from him. He was thought a victim of the Japanese.

Finally Franz Weidenreich, New York naturalist,

REFORM IN CONGRESS

The Reorganization Act voted last year when put into effect will mean that congressmen will have more time to devote to serious and major issues. They will be assisted by able helpers and their load considerably lightened. No one expects all reforms provided by the act to go into effect at once, but some of them should.

The changes constitute one chapter in the program of the new Congress that voters will watch with great interest. The fact that this streamlining of Congressional duties has support from both Republicans and Democrats business needs to be handled in a more efficient manner.

CLASHING CANDIDATES

Ohio, traditional mother of presidents, has two candidates who would ask nothing better than to run in 1948, Senators Taft and Bricker. The politicians say that only one should run, as two candidates from the same state would defeat each other.

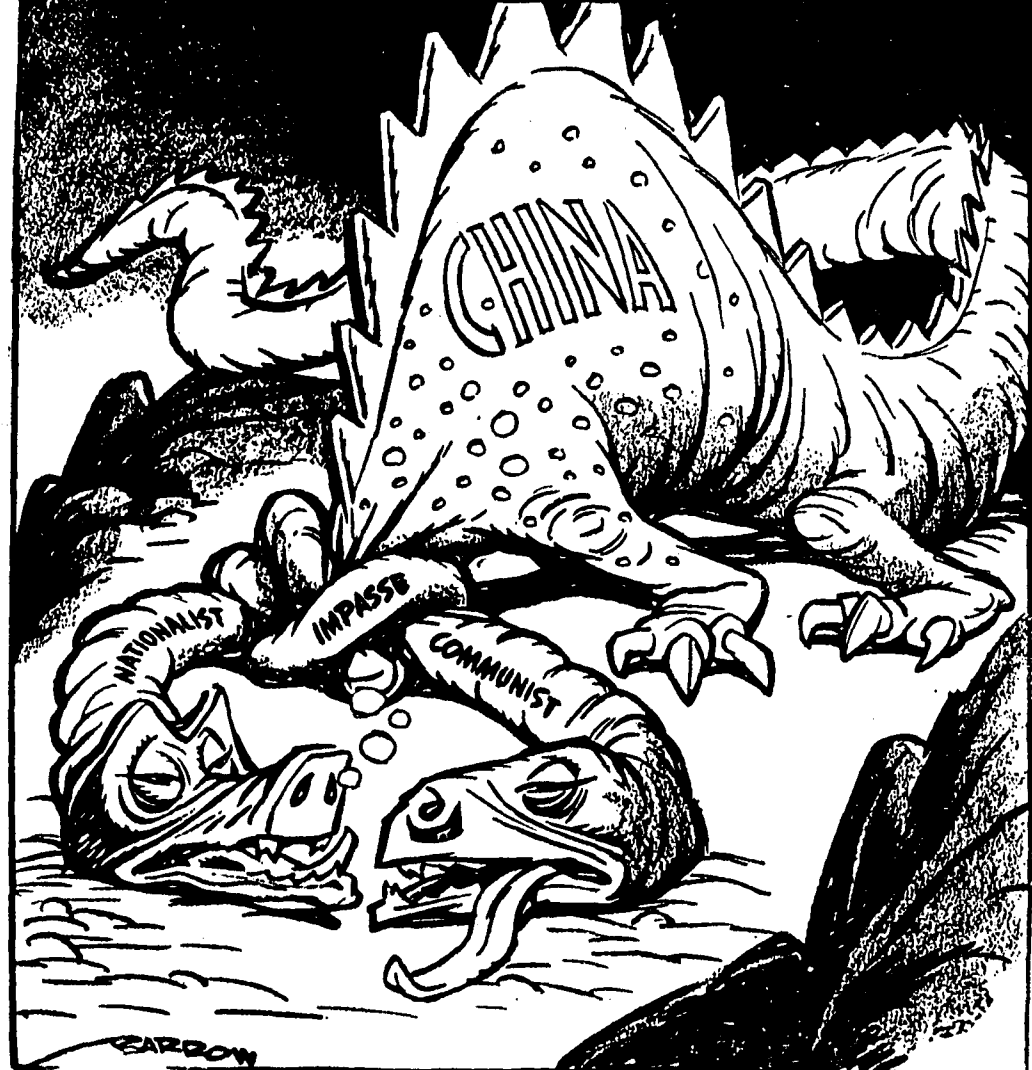

This is not always true. In 1880 the Pennsylvania Democrats presented both Speaker Samuel J. Randall and Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, but the conflict of candidacies did not keep Hancock from getting the nomination. In 1888 the Republicans named Benjamin Harrison of Indiana, though Judge Walter Q. Gresham of the same state had strong support in the convention, and in 1892 Grover Cleveland, a New Yorker, was named for the third time although Gov. David B. Hill of the same state was not only a rival but the choice of the New York delegation.

On the other side is John Sherman's experience. This Ohioan, a candidate of three conventions in the '80's, was continually hampered by rival aspirants from his state, and never was nominated. It may have been the memory of this Ohio precedent which has caused Senator-elect Bricker to yield at least temporarily to Senator Taft. Bricker would be only human if he were to hope that Taft would stub his toe.

END OF EMPIRE

Premier Leon Blum of France repeats France's recognition of an independent Annam or Viet Nam. Premier Attlee of Great Britain concedes Burmese independence. The reason in both cases is the same. Neither France nor Great Britain is able to maintain its authority by force. If the two colonial dominions want freedom enough to fight for it, the mother country is in no position to resist.

On this account Winston Churchill's denunciation of the Labor government's relinquishment of Burma is mere campaign oratory. All his talk of "the decline and fall of the British empire" is true enough, but there is nothing that can be done about it, short of a war which Great Britain is not strong enough to carry on. It may be humiliating, but it is unavoidable. The era of European supremacy in the Far East is ending, and not even Churchill could prolong its life if he were in power.

BRIGHT LICENSE PLATES

The esthetic motorist who has to spend many hours on the road will find his driving brightened by gayer license plates in 1947. Arizona's red on aluminum and Illinois' canary on green will both be additions to the landscape. So would Nevada's blue on silver if Nevada cars were not so few and therefore scarce in other parts of the country. They put to shame Delaware's sober white on black and Missouri's equally somber black on white.

Connecticut, Delaware, Rhode Island and Wisconsin have adopted the permanent type of plate which has a small metal insert every year giving the date. If this movement spreads, the states adopting the permanent plan will find themselves in better favor if they choose one of their brighter plates and not pick out the drabest.

ICE-FREE ANTARCTICA

Are there any ice-free stretches in Antarctica, warmed by hot springs? The Byrd expedition hopes that its planes may find some, basing its expectation on the recent British find of a hot geyser in their section of Antarctica, and on the long-known and still active volcano, Mt. Erebus, on the way to Little America.

If there were any ice-free areas, warmed by hot springs, the South Polar continent could be settled and its mineral resources utilized. The adventurous may yet find it a new area to develop.

BACK-PAY CLAIMS

Probably one of the first bills that will occupy the new Congress is something to control retroactive wage claims. The Gwynne Bill is one that will be considered. This would protect employers who acted in good faith, and would put a two-year limit on back-pay claims. Unless some such legislation is enacted the government might have to pay war contractors billions of dollars. Widespread bankruptcy could follow if union demands for back pay were held legal.

TWO-LANE SAFETY

Perhaps traffic congestion is a good thing. When a two-lane pavement carries more than 9,000 vehicles a day, says David Baldwin of the National Safety Council, accidents actually decrease because of congestion. When cars must crawl, the most serious thing that can happen is to have their bumpers locked.

Still, no one would recommend cutting down highways to two lanes in order to increase safety. No getting out of it—got to use the same old sense and self-control. If any.

THE $5,000 SALARY

The new housing program, says Ray Sawyer, national commander of American Veterans of World War II, "looks okay for the veteran making $5,000 a year. For the 90 per cent making less than half that, the promise of immediate low-cost housing is gone."

A lot of prices besides those of houses appear to be planned for the man making $5,000 a year—or more.

The nation recently celebrated National Cat Week. It has long been known that every dog has his day. How do cats get a week?

State Home Lads Divided Games With Frost Polar Bears

The State Home Lads kept their record of pre-tournament wins against district 35-B opponents intact Wednesday night at Frost when they trounced the Frost Polar Bears 26-18. The Lassies were not so fortunate, however, dropping a hard-fought 19-25 game to the Frost Bears.

The Lads' zone defense, coupled with a very fast break, saved the day for them. They missed a high percentage of their shots, but managed to keep far enough in the lead to allow their second string some playing time in the last couple of minutes.

Navarro County Electric Co-Operative Organized In 1937

Approximately 500 new consumers were added to the Navarro County Electric Cooperative's lines during 1946. Oale Cauble, manager, stated here today. This brings the total number of members served by the cooperative to more than 2250, located in Hill, Navarro, Ellis, Limestone, and Freestone counties of this area.

New Consumers are being connected to the cooperative's lines as rapidly as the available supply of construction materials permits, the manager said. A severe shortage still exists in wire, transformers, poles and many other items needed in building rural power lines.

The electric cooperative program was inaugurated in Texas 11 years ago this spring when the first REA line in the nation was built near Edinburg in Starr County, Central Texas. Mr. Cauble said. At that time, only three percent of the rural homes of Texas—less than 12,000 in all—had electric service. Today more than 44 percent are electrified.

Texas' 75 rural electric cooperatives serve approximately 145,000 rural consumers in 220 counties. They own and operate rural schools, churches, stores, and hundreds of small rural industries.

The Navarro County Electric Co-operative was organized in 1937. Its first lines were energized in September of 1938.

The local cooperative is fully paying its own way out of operating revenues, and repaying its loans to REA ahead of schedule. The Cooperative is a private business enterprise, owned and controlled by the rural people who receive service along its lines. It is a non-profit organization, serving its members with electricity at cost. The board of directors includes W. V. Hull, A. H. Bass, J. L. Baker, Z. P. Owens, J. Ray, W. C. Wasson, and Sammie Saunders.

Mr. Cauble pointed out. Electricity has increased the productivity and purchasing power of every farmer it has served, and created a vast new rural market for electrical appliances and equipment of all kinds.

In fact, my boy, it seemed as if the ladies did "protest" too much. This whole business, Horace, has convinced me that someone should help out those 3,000,000 frustrated bachelor girls who don't appear able to pin down a man alone. They need to be told how to catch and hold a husband. But I'll bet ahead of time they'll want to build the wrong kind of cage.

Day, Night Garage Again Burglarized

The aggravating burglar with a mania for the cash box at the Day and Night Garage struck again sometime Tuesday night, Chief Bruce Nutt disclosed Wednesday morning.

Marking the third entry of the establishment in a week, the burglar obtained approximately $3, leaving behind three pantries. The first burglary netted $12 and the second was unsuccessful.

Chief Nutt said entry was again made by the favorite window, this time pushing out the cardboard covering the coning. Previously the burglar had to break the glass.

Officer Barnes discovered the entry and Officers Chapman, Kelly and Massey investigated.

TWO MEN BEING HELD IN CONNECTION WITH SEVERAL BURGLARIES

COUNTY OFFICERS RECOVER TYPENITERS TAKEN FROM JUNIOR COLLEGE

County officers have cleared a series of burglaries in the county and have recovered three typewriters taken from the Navarro Junior College, and also four valuable guns taken from the office of John J. Bryant at Roane the first week-end of the New Year. Additional burglaries occurred Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

Sheriff David Castles, Deputy Sheriff Raymond Myrick, Chas. T. Banister and Seaton T. Holsey, county attorney and assistant, respectively, worked on the case all night Tuesday night.

The typewriters were recovered at Lawton, Okla., Wichita Falls and Ennis.

Guns Recovered.

The guns recovered, two in Wichita Falls, and two in Ennis, were an automatic Remington 20-gauge shotgun, a double-barrel German 20-gauge shotgun, a 410 Winchester pump and a .22 long Winchester automatic rifle, the sheriff said.

Entrance into the college was through an unlocked door, while a window was broken at the Bryant office in Roane. The Glen Curry storehouse in Roane was entered the same night and a case of canned tomatoes were taken, the sheriff reported.

Two Men Held.

Two young men are in custody the sheriff stated shortly before noon following his return from Ennis. He said those involved had made statements in connection with the matter. Banister said two men had been named in three burglary charges and a 16-year-old girl will be charged at a juvenile.

The Dixie Club, located near the intersection of North Benton street and Highway 75 north of Corsicana, was entered during the night. Eight cartons of cigarettes were reported lost. Deputy Sheriff R. E. Jones investigated the burglary.

Deputy Sheriff Myrick is investigating the burglarizing of the Red Top Cafe and filling station in Rice, owned by Louise Bishop.

The officer said an estimated $60 was taken from a music box and marble machine. Entrance was through a north window of the cafe. Nothing was missing from the filling station.

Miss Doris Cagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cagle, and Parks Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Christian of Powell, were married on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Dan E. Clark, minister of West Side Church of Christ, with Mr. Clark officiating.

The bride was attired in gray gaberdine with black accessories and a carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hilbert were the couple's only attendants.

SPEAKER REED

New Speaker Reed Of Texas House Is Veteran Lawmaker

AUSTIN, Jan. 17.—(AP)—As soft-spoken, incisive W. O. Reed of Dallas assumed the speakership of the house in the 50th legislature, he put his foot on a stepping stone that has led many predecessors to high political places.

(Reed was elected unanimously.) Reed's election as speaker has been virtually a cinch since one aspirant to the place was defeated in the primaries, and the other withdrew.

Reed, who is a lawyer of the Texas and Pacific Railway between sessions, is dean of the house at the relatively tender age of 45. He has served 14 years as a Dallas county representative and rose to the top in an apparently effortless bid for leadership. Yet his friends say it was a natural, if gradual, process because of his reputation for being a hard worker at some of the more thankless tasks in lawmaking.

Reed has served on virtually every important committee, and has been chairman of many. He was the author of the pay-as-you-go constitutional amendment designed to keep the state's finances on a cash basis, and he is a known conservative in matters of taxation and state spending.

He has also been an advocate of child welfare legislation.

One of the first such measures he backed was a law prohibiting the sale of soundings by maternity homes. Reed was born in a humble home in Dallas in 1902, his father died when he was just a year old and the youngest child in a family of ten.

Basic Economic Battle. Thereafter, W. O. Reed's life was basically an economic battle. He sold papers on the streets of Dallas and there he got the reputation of not fighting unless he had to. He often had to.

Then Reed attended the old Bryan street high school for two years, went to work for the city of Dallas, then the P. & H. railroad rate lawyer and he achieved it by studying law at night.

On the eve of the general session, he considered that keeping state income and outgo in line was the biggest job of the legislature.

WITH A GREAT COMMONER* A TIMID ARISTOCRAT ARGUES

Interview of Historic Importance -- New World Desperately Needs the Principles Set Forth -- Simple Truth Simply Expressed, The Greatest Sentence in All Human Speech

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

At night, the Orient commonly stays indoors. As I have roamed about Jerusalem after nightfall, or climbed the slopes of the Mount of Olives, I have found the streets and roads deserted. Yet one of the most important incidents in all the Bible is staged at night, the interview of Nicodemus, the timid and troubled aristocrat, with Jesus, the carpenter-commoner. One easily imagines the scene. Hurrying furtively through the dark streets of Jerusalem, an armed servant following behind, was this richly-clad member of the Jewish Sanhedrin, his face wrapped about with his cloak, lest he be detected.

Afraid of the Light
Like most men of wealth and position, Nicodemus was concerned chiefly with his reputation. At the humble home where Jesus lodged he found the door unlatched, with no functionary to bar his way or question his errand. It was then—and today still is—easy for anyone to find Jesus without formality.

Nicodemus was an influential member of the highest of all Jewish bodies, the Sanhedrin, which was both court and legislature. He no doubt expected to be welcomed by Jesus, as people of like position and wealth today usually expect places of performance and a copious measure of adulation if they ally themselves to the cause of religion.

It must have shocked Nicodemus to be coolly received. He who was one of Israel's great teachers soon found himself sitting on the lowest school bench and listening to the words of a man whose fame they felt hot from the lips of the world's Master Teacher.

Nicodemus was a man who believed that orthodoxy was sufficient. Jesus went about to shatter not the orthodoxy of His visitor, but the complacency, the smugness, and the lack of spiritual insight with which Nicodemus held his orthodoxy.

It Is the Heart That Counts
Religion is spiritual or it is nothing. This is the very heart of our lesson today. A new nature, a new life purpose, a new allegiance—these alone provide membership in that Kingdom which is the only hope of a tottering world. If one possesses even an embryonic brain, he knows that spiritual things are first; most of the material concerns of life are merely so much baggage. What he experiences in his own soul is the real concern of man.

The Church has never been so well equipped or so rich as it is today. But it lacks spiritual power. It talks a lot about the need for better social conditions, world peace, education, racial tolerance, universal cooperation. But what it does not proclaim with sufficient insistence is that what needs imperatively to be changed is the selfish heart of man. This will be changed not by some new philosophy but by submission of hearts to Jesus Christ, whom God sent into the world as His divine Agent for the transformation of men's souls.

Nicodemus was interested in the intellectual soundness of men's theology; Jesus was interested in the spiritual soundness of their hearts.

When his bewildered visitor blurted out, "How can these things be?" Jesus cited the familiar phenomenon of the wind, perhaps blowing outside the house at the moment, and asked for all Nicodemus-minded persons to step aside from their intellectual pride for a moment, to consider the familiar things that we do not understand. What is the vital spark of life? Is it the surgeons with all their probings cannot even locate the seat of life. What is thought, and how do its processes work, and with what sections of the brain or body? We do not know. What is electricity, the commonest tool of modern civilization? Science is silent.

Passing strange, is it not, that human beings whose daily walk of life is down a grinning row of sphinxes yet insist upon knowing all about God before they will accept Him. This mystery of religion, which is life from God and with God, a veritable new birth, is the great reality. And it alone bridges the passage into hereafter.

The greatest sentence ever formulated into human speech fell from the lips of Jesus during this interview: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have eternal life."

Words With Eternal Meaning
The world is waiting today for great words—mostly for new words. But if we have eyes to see and minds to understand, we shall realize that until the end of time these words of Jesus will retain their dazzling newness. They express basic religious truth. God wants to save man and has gone to infinite pains to do so. Religion begins with Tom, Dick, and Harry and proceeds from thence to nations and continents.

When men turn evil out of their hearts by repentance and let Christ come in the world begins to look up bravely and starts off on a trek to better days.

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS
Courage is the greatest quality of the mind next to honor.

—James L. Allen.

If we make religion our business, God will make it our blessedness.

—H. G. J. Adam.

There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; Omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries.

—Shakespeare.

Reputation is what men and women think of us; character is what God and angels know of us.

—Palme.

Except one be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

—John 3:3.

Liberal Wing of Young Democrats Plans Fight

DALLAS, Jan. 16.—(AP) Jack Carter of Fort Worth said last night that the liberal wing of the Texas Young Democratic Club would ask for a hearing before the executive committee of the Young Democratic Clubs of America in its fight for a national charter.

His announcement followed the action of state Democratic Chairman Robert W. Calvert in recognizing Miss Edith Wemple, choice of the so-called conservative group, as the legally elected national committeewoman of the youth group in Texas.

Neither faction of the Texas

Young Democrats, who split into two groups at the state convention in November, now possesses a charter.

REVIVAL PREACHER PROMISES THRILLER TONIGHT'S SERVICE

"He-devils and She-devils, Plentiful in Corsicana," is announced as the subject of Evangelist Paul Ray's sermon tonight in the Calvary Baptist revival. He promises a thriller to which his recent sermons have been preparatory.

In last evening's message, a Scriptural discussion of the "Unpardonable Sin," the evangelist quoted copiously from DeWitt Talmadge, Billy Sunday and other authorities. The Scripture reading was Matthew 12:22-37 with emphasis on the verse, "The soul may be forgiven, but the body shall never be forgiven," and "Whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world nor in the world to come."

Testing drunkenness, cursing, gossip and other common sins as possible signs against the Holy Spirit, Ray brushed all of them off with one statement: "People who have committed these have been saved." Rejection of Jesus until death is thought by some to be the unpardonable sin, but Ray refuted this, and gave his definition from the Bible: "Attributing the works of the Holy Spirit to the power of Beelzebub or the devil, or calling the Holy Spirit Satan."

"One may know when he has committed this sin," Ray explained, "by experiencing no conviction, no call and no hope of salvation. Any interest in becoming a Christian is evidence that the sin has not been committed and that the soul may still be saved."

It Happened 25 Years Ago Today

(From the Files of the Corsicana Daily Sun.)

Betty Blythe was knocking the males off their feet in the slightly torrid "Queen of Sheba" showing at the Ideal.

Statistics proved that girls in Dixie did not smoke as much, drink as much intoxicating liquors, and wore their skirts longer than Yankee girls.

A great fire visited Mexico on Jan. 14, latest reports giving the damage as two city blocks totally destroyed and the entire city threatened. There was very little water available and the Corsicana fire department sent the big Packard truck to aid in the battle. One thousand white-robed KKK men suddenly sprang from the earth in Corsicana, marched down Beaton street in dead silence, then just as mysteriously disappeared. The Rev. C. C. Sleeman, pastor of the First Methodist church of Dallas was scheduled to speak at interdenomination services at the YMCA.

(Bishop C. C. Selerman will be the principal speaker at the Men's Dinner club banquet of the First Methodist church on Jan. 16.)

There's EXTRA SAFETY in the Tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

While many postwar products are still in the dream stage, one is not... the new postwar B.F. Goodrich Silvertown that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

It's been produced... and what is more... in the past twelve months it's been delivered to car owners in greater quantities than any tire in B.F. Goodrich history.

Of course, many car owners have heard about the thousands of extra miles of service from the broader, flatter tread that covers more road area and gives greater protection against skidding. They know about the 35% stronger cord body that gives better resistance to road shocks and bruising. It's no wonder the factory's outstanding production has been taxed keeping up with this extra demand.

But this is one product you can take out of your dream book... it's here.

If you'll be needing new tires soon... check with us today for the tire that's worth much more but costs no more—the B.F. Goodrich Silvertown that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

GREAT PROGRESS IN COUNTY 4-H WORK IS REPORTED BY LEADER

Navarro county made great progress in 4-H work during 1946. Miss Frances Riley, assistant county home demonstration agent, says in making a report of the work for the past year. There were 370 girls enrolled in the clubs in the county, representing those interested in becoming better homemakers under the guidance of co-operative extension workers and local volunteer leaders.

Any girl between the ages of 10 and 21 years who agrees to "learn to do by doing" may enroll. The group elects its own officers, plans and conducts programs based on the needs and interests of young people, holds regular meetings, and takes part in community activities.

Many Demonstrations Given.

The main demonstration given the 4-H clubs during 1946 were on clothing and orchards, with emphasis on berries. Reports from the clubs in connection with the clothing demonstration show that 18 girls kept individual clothing accounts, with $1080 being the total expenditure for clothing by these girls; 700 garments were made; 156 garments made; with several garments being cleaned at home; 5 closets were remodeled.

In the orchard demonstration 2648 vines were planted, 86 sprayed and dusted by extension method, 38 improved soil by fertilizing - r planting cover crops, and kept orchard free of waste fruit, diseases and pruning operations. Five berry plants of the Young and Boyan variety were given to each of the 18 demonstrators.

Reports from the 4-H girls' garden demonstration show that the girls had fair returns from their gardens. The 23 demonstrators planted 6,876 row feet of vegetables with Sears seed and plants; 1521 pounds of vegetables were gathered from the gardens, with 595 quarts of vegetables consumed from them.

During 1946 the 4-H club girls have participated in the district camp, held at Sherman; county camp held at Camp Warden and several girls had entries of food and clothing at the Corsicana Fair and Livestock Show during September. Two girls and a local leader attended the Statewide Texas 4-H Roundup at College Station during August. National 4-H club week and National Rural Life Sunday were observed in the county with appropriate displays and programs.

Several Events Observed.

Some of these recreational activities were designed to help fill the club treasury. Box suppers, "hole" parties and 42 parties netted a return of $41.96 for club treasuries. Seven entertainments were given for boys' 4-H clubs. Other entertainments given were picnics, parties, carrying out a motif of Christmas, Valentine, George Washington and St. Patrick.

Some of the clubs entertained their parents while others co-operated with home demonstration clubs in giving a community entertainment. Approximately 60 entertainments were given in the county.

An agitated, aged man Tuesday afternoon reported that a "religious woman" had robbed him of $56.40 and his purse while praying for him. He is suffering from rheumatism and the woman was praying for him, he said. After the prayer and rubbing, his purse and contents were missed. The incident, it was reported to the sheriff's office, occurred during the noon hour near the underpass. The victim said the woman drove north on Highway 75 in a small car, the type of which the man could not state, toward Ennis.

County officers telephoned to Ennis in an effort to intercept the wanted woman and also inaugurated a local investigation. "It was a dirty trick to play on a man," the victim declared with vehemence.

Fair Purchase Price Set On Hubam Clover

An approved fair purchase order price of 23 cents per hundred-weight on Hubam clover, set by the state ACA committee, has been announced locally by Cline Young of the local office.

The AAA rate of pay of 18.4 cents per 100 pounds on purchase orders leaves only 4.6 cents to be paid by the farmer. The farmer must plant his crop on pasture land and harvest it with a combine to be eligible for payment.

He can also earn payment for harvest seed provided he gets prior approval from the local ACA office. The maximum payment per farm is $70, based on 2 cents per pound, not to exceed $3.85 per acre.

A plan is in formation to set up a purchase order system on practically all grass and legume seeds that are in demand in Navarro county.

Turning back to Sergeant Jones, Arnall asked:

"Do you think you need four men to keep me out?"

Sergeant Jones replied "That number has been detailed, but let me say man to man, we honestly hope there will be no violence in this issue."

Arnall then said "Inasmuch as I consider that you are well meaning men I shall not persist. I fear no man or any four men armed with revolvers, but merely through consideration to you I shall not persist. There will come a time when I will persist and you men will learn to respect law and order and the constitution."

MEXICAN BEING HELD FOR INVESTIGATION FOLLOWING BURGLARY

A 20-year old Mexican, carrying a red, plastic toy pistol, was being held today by city police for investigation in connection with the burglary of the Lorraine Service Station Wednesday night, Chief Bruce Nutt disclosed.

Officer Barnes apprehended the man on Commerce street, but a companion escaped. The Mexican was placed under arrest after $4.00 in small coins was found on his person in addition to other mementos.

Officers Powell and Massey investigated the burglary call to the service station and found entrance had been made by breaking a rear window. A cash register, a sewing machine, a fountain pen, 100 pennies, 25 dimes, 22 nickels, three quarters, one half dollar, and a one dollar bill on the Mexican.

at anchor with their cargoes half unloaded.

In an attempt to settle the truck strike and halt the rapidly spreading wave of sympathy walkouts—only 15,000 truck drivers were in the original dispute—government negotiators and union heads summoned strike leaders to two meetings today.

Because the strike is "unofficial," the ministry of labor has specified settlement of the wages and hours dispute cannot be undertaken until the drivers have returned to work.

The truck strikers demand a 44-hour work week instead of 48, and eight-hour day, 14 days annual vacation with pay, half pay during illness and abolition of the cumulative week for overtime purposes.

Troops, first employed last Monday to move food to shops drained during the then eight-day old strike, delivered about 700 tons of meat from Smithfield Market yesterday.

Like most other automobile makers Ford had increased prices several times since the war's end. While the newly announced reductions do not cut them back as much as the increase of last September Ford observed that "this is just the beginning."

ad for $10,000. It had been prepared to make an appropriation up to $50,000 before the legislature met Tuesday.

The announcement of committee appointments in the senate yesterday completed its organization in rapid-fire time. The outlook was that committee assignments in the house would not be completed until the middle of next week.

Two Bills Completed.

The house completed action on its first two bills yesterday; one appropriating $350,000 for salaries and expenses of the session, the other authorizing judges of appellate courts to administer oaths of office.

The house also set for Monday the formal canvassing of the general election votes of the governor and lieutenant governor's race. It passed a concurrent resolution to this effect, and senate agreement for the joint session, was a foregone conclusion.

Meanwhile, a steady flow of bills introduced continued in the senate. They included a bill by Sen. G. C. Morris of Greenville requiring the licensing, inspection and regulation of hospitals and related institutions and creating a hospital licensing council. Hospitals now in operation would be given one year to comply with the new rules and regulations.

Sen. R. L. Proffer of Justin offered a bill appropriating $125,000 for the next two years beginning Sept. 1 to establish a graduate school of social work to train students who want to become health and welfare workers, at the University of Texas. A similar bill failed last session.

T. G. Chadick of Quitman would permit the state welfare department to have access to information on adoptions as reported to the Bureau of Vital Statistics.

He called attention to the constitutional provision that when over a single county has sufficient population to be entitled to a representative, such a county shall be formed into a separate representative district.

"You gentlemen who are more familiar with the political history of this state may recall that the year 1921 was the last time this quoted portion of our constitution was complied with," Schraub told an attentive audience.

 Both Arnall and Talmadge have pointed Atlanta general. Arnall has R. W. Collins, former commander of the State Guard, and Talmadge has Mervin Griffin, who resigned his commission under Arnall to accept Talmadge appointment.

Legislature May Recede.
 While the scramble over the governorship was going on downstairs, the legislature on the floor above the state capitol received a proposal from three anti-Talmadge members that it recess until the courts decide who is the legal governor.

The three sponsors of the movement, Representatives Charles Cowen, Adie Eudene and Jake Noel said it was expected the state supreme court would decide the issue by March 31 under a declaratory judgment movement started yesterday by Attorney General Eugene Cook acting on Arnall's orders.

After a series of interviews with newsmen, Arnall got up from his desk in the capitol rotunda and announced to the crowd surrounding him "The governor of Georgia is now going to the barbershop, after which he probably will go up town and mingle with the people and then hold a luncheon at the mansion for the press and my friends. After that I will return to the capitol and be ready for business as usual."

Arnall Arrives Alone.
 Arnall was alone when he arrived at the capitol today. He had spent the night at his home in Newnan, 40 miles south of Atlanta. He was driven to Newnan by a state patrolman, because he said his regular driver was "mailed and beaten" in fistfights when Talmadge supporters attempted to seize the executive chambers early yesterday shortly after his election by the legislature.

Arnall's entry to the offices was blocked by Ben Odum, secretary to Talmadge.

Arnall Sets Up Office.
 Arnall set up temporary offices in the rotunda of state capitol. Arnall strode across the floor of an ante-room to a door leading into the executive's private office where he was met by an aide of Talmadge who told him to have a seat when he said he desired to see Talmadge.

In a blunt question directed repeatedly at Ben Odum, Arnall said dramatically:
 "Are you denying me the right to enter my office?"

Entrance Is Denied.
 Odum insisted each time that he was not denying Arnall entrance to "your office," but that he would not permit him "to enter the office of Mr. Talmadge who is now the legal governor of the State of Georgia."

After continued futile demands to gain entry, Arnall turned to the room which was crowded with photographers, newsmen and Talmadge supporters and said:
 "Last night a perfect Panzer movement was effected which resulted in the removal of the locks from these doors by a military force from the Talmadge organization. A suit has been instituted in the courts of Georgia to sustain my position."

Talmadge Called "Pretender."
 "I hereby place on order all de-

TALMADGE URGES CROWD TO GO HOME—Herman Talmadge, claimant to governorship in Georgia, stands on a desk in the reception room to the governor's office in the state capitol in Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 21, with arrival back in Cordeiro. He urged the crowd to go home saying, "I am duly installed as governor of Georgia now and do not need your services any longer." Talmadge is using the reception room for an office and Ellis Arnall, also claiming to be governor, is using the governor's office. (AP Wirephoto).

partment heads... and notify them that henceforth they act at their peril unless expressly under direction of Ellis Arnall."

Arnall, continuing, said that the Attorney General had ruled that he should remain in office until his successor is duly qualified and ready to assume office. Arnall repeatedly referred to Talmadge as "that pretender," and added that "I propose to continue to act as governor of Georgia until Lieutenant Governor M. E. Thompson is sworn in and can take over."

The issue now involved transference of personalities and involved themselves into the question of whether the people of Georgia shall rule and Democracy prevail or whether the state will give way to rule by force and barbarism."

Bodily Violence Seen.
 Earlier, a spokesman had told newsmen Arnall would not be permitted "to enter."

The spokesman, who declined to permit use of his name indicated Arnall would be carried out bodily if he appeared at the executive offices where they shared facilities yesterday.

Young Talmadge, elected by the legislature after his father, Eugene Talmadge, died 23 days before the inauguration, said "As governor of Georgia I have taken complete charge of the executive offices at the state capitol."

"Only One Governor."
 The youthful claimant to the executive chair said it would be "ridiculous to have two governors sitting in the capitol" and said flatly there "would be but one."

Talmadge took over Arnall's office promptly at 7 a. m. (EST) after aides had ordered the locks changed during the night. Uniformed state police stood at the entrance of the private office and only news photographers and close political friends were allowed to enter.

MAYON VOLCANO IN NEW ERUPTION OF GREATER VIOLENCE

MANILA, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Mayon volcano erupted violently again Wednesday.

A U. S. Navy pilot, flying a mile away, said Mayon threw smoke and ashes 20,000 feet into the southern Luzon skies.

Mayon's huge peak was almost entirely obscured by dense smoke rising from lava flowing down the mountain's slopes in scores of molten streams.

The pilot's report, released through the Philippine government, said there was no immediate danger from the lava.

Unconfirmed press reports said inhabitants of Libog, a town of 5,000 menaced by the lava, had been evacuated.

The Evening News said three villagers were killed by lava fumes and more than 6,000 Filipinos on Southern Luzon were fleeing to evacuation centers. The News said its information came from Governor Venancio P. Zingra.

Mayon burst into activity a week ago and began erupting Sunday. It has spewed red hot boulders about every three hours since.

The rates for the special will be $3.28 round trip on the chair cars and $10.29 round trip on the Pullman. Upper berths will be $2.08 each way. There is a heavy demand for compartments and bedrooms, Werner said.

Car for Negroes.
 At present the train will consist of two Pullmans, five chair cars and a baggage car. One of the chair cars will be reserved for negroes. A planning committee of the negro Chamber of Commerce had arranged a motor caravan, but Werner said the group was trying to change the personnel over to the train.

The baggage car will be used partially by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for concessions. Drinks and sandwiches will be served.

The Lions Club agreed to sponsor the train at the regular luncheon meeting upon a motion by Boyce Martin. The school board, Bend Parents' Association, and Duke Club agreed to pay the expenses of the 75-piece Corsicana High School Tiger band.

Not Required Attend Classes.
 Superintendent H. H. Norwood of the city schools disclosed that no school holiday would be declared, but that teachers would be busy on Jan. 20-21 grading exams and compiling marks. Students are not required to attend classes, as is the usual procedure, and those who desire to go to Austin may obtain their report cards on Jan. 22 instead of at 1 p. m. Jan. 21.

Werner announced two national names to the ticket selling committee, bringing the total to 22. Announced were Jim Collins and Hubert Braselton. Others named were R. W. Muller, Will Thompson, Alvin Marks, Sydney Marks, J. W. McAdams, Sam Werner, L. V. Majors, J. H. Bryant, A. W. Deves, P. T. Fullwood, Morris Evans, J. Dave Walker, Sneed Hamilton, Jay Silverberg, Leighton Dawson, J. Floyd Smith, W. L. Holman, Fred Harvey, Jr., and George Calder.

their rights. It failed to manifest itself yesterday. Both occupied offices opening on the same reception chamber, carried on governmental functions.

Talmadge occupied much of his day swearing in state officials and appointing others to state offices. They moved into offices occupied by Arnall appointees, but to date there has been no violence.

Military Shuffle Made.
 Both men sought, almost immediately after Talmadge's election became known, to gain control of the state's armed forces.

Talmadge named Mervin Griffin as adjutant general, while Arnall countered by naming Col. R. W. Collins. Then Talmadge issued an order dissolving the state guard on the grounds that it had served the purpose and its functions could now be assumed by the National guard.

Arnall vested Collins with "complete, full and absolute" authority over both the state and national guards.

COOKING FOR TWO

KRAUT TRICK... Serve in mashed potato nests...
 By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
 Associated Press Food Editor.

People who cook for two usually are very busy people, working in an office all day and doing housework at night. Such cooks want to plan meals which are quick and easy to prepare.

Such planning naturally involves the use of canned goods, quick-frozen foods and the like. The big trouble is that it's hard to find those nice little cans which contain just enough food for two. Then comes the problem of what to do with what's left, if you open a big can.

It takes careful planning, as does every part of cooking, for two, but it can be done. If you keep the left-over food in question well and tightly covered in the refrigerator, it will keep nicely for several days. Thus, you needn't serve the same thing two or three nights running.

Let's just take a big can of sauerkraut for an example and show how it can be used up by two people, with no boredom or complaint from anybody.

Let's take a can of sauerkraut for an example and show how it can be used up by two people, with no boredom or complaint from anybody.

Baked Spareribs and Sauerkraut
 (for two)
 2 cups sauerkraut, 1 lb. spareribs, salt, pepper.

Place sauerkraut in shallow baking pan. Sprinkle spareribs with salt and pepper, and dusting of flour if desired, and place on top of the sauerkraut. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for one hour.

Then a couple of nights later you could serve these quick and easy Mashed Potato Nests. They make a good main dish for a meatless dinner, with their flavorful combination of sauerkraut and cheese. Plan to have mashed potatoes the night before and to have some left over, so you'll be set for this dish.

Mashed Potato Nests.
 2-3 cups sauerkraut, 1 teaspoon shortening or drippings, 1 tablespoon finely diced onion, 1 tablespoon finely diced green pepper, 1-2 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese, 1 egg yolk well beaten, 1 cup warm mashed potatoes, grated cheese for top.

Drain sauerkraut and cut into smaller pieces with a pair of scissors. Melt shortening in frying pan; add onion and green pepper and saute five minutes. Add sauerkraut and cheese and mix well. Add beaten egg yolk to the warm mashed potato and mix well. Make two mounds of the potatoes on a greased baking pan, and shape a well in the center with the back of a spoon. Brush the

First Of Public Welfare Bills Is Given To Senate

AUSTIN, Jan. 16.—(AP)—First of a number of expected legislative measures pertaining to public welfare was before the senate today in the form of a senate joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 1 by Sen. R. L. Proffer of Justin proposes an amendment to make public welfare funds available to persons totally and permanently incapacitated, unable to make a living because of mental or physical disabilities, in dire need, and not eligible for present assistance.

Present welfare assistance goes to needy dependent children under 14 years old, needy blind over 21 years old, and persons over 65 in dire need.

If approved, by two-thirds majority of both houses and Texas voters, the amendment would make funds available for such persons as paralytics, mentally ill, and those unable to make a living because of loss of limbs.

URGE REGISTRATION ALL HOUSING UNITS IN LOCAL DISTRICT

An estimated 2,800 housing units in Navarro, Ellis, and Kaufman counties have not been registered with the area rent control office, J. S. Murchison, director, said today.

"It appears from a survey of potential registrations there are still some 2,800 who have not registered. Tenants who have not received a copy of the landlord's registration should notify our office immediately."

The director revealed there were 3,222 registrations in Navarro county on Dec. 25, date of the last report. These, he explained, were acceptable reports. In Ellis county there were 1,970 and in Kaufman county 1,866.

Counting all the registrations, acceptable and not acceptable, the total would not be over 7,500, he stated. A preliminary survey indicated there were nearly 11,000 housing units being rented in the three county area.

The Corsicana office is currently conducting inspections and rendering reports. Approval has been given for a branch office in Terrell and personnel recommended for the office. As soon as official approval is granted, the branch will be opened. A branch office is currently in operation in Waxahatchie, serving Ellis county. The Terrell office will serve Kaufman county.

OFFICERS SEEK SEX SLAYER OF BISECTED LOS ANGELES GIRL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Police were attempting to check body known as sex degenerate in their search for the sadistic slayer of a young girl, probably about 17, whose bisected body was found yesterday in a sparsely populated section of southwest Los Angeles.

The young woman had been strangled. She had deep head wounds, savage knife slashes in the back and a deep wound in the abdomen, any of which, police surgeons said, could have been fatal. And finally, the body had been cut or sawed completely in two just above the midsection.

There were rope and wire burns on wrists and ankles of the victim's mangled body, and Detective Lieut. Jess Haskins suggested the possibility that she had been tortured. He was convinced that she had been killed elsewhere, and the body had been moved to a car on the weed-grown vacant lot where it was found.

CONGRESS IS TAKING COOLING-OFF PERIOD ON LABOR, TAX LAWS

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Now you can sit back and wait to see what happens in congress about taxes and labor.

Taxes probably will be cut a bit, and probably there will be some new labor laws, or changes in the old ones.

But doing anything about taxes and labor—and doing it well—is a big job. The Republicans, settling down to work now, know it.

They're beginning to walk carefully. Take taxes and, with them, take Rep. Knutson, the Minnesota Republican.

He's chairman of the house ways and means committee which handles tax problems for the house. He was all for getting rid of the wartime luxury tax on things like furs and jewelry. The government collected $1,500,000,000 a year from them.

Finally President Truman said in effect on December 31 the wartime luxury taxes end officially next July 1.

Now this week Knutson says the wartime luxury taxes should be continued even beyond July 1 and he'll try to see that that's done.

This was an about-face for Knutson. But why? Here are some likely reasons.

Continuing those luxury taxes beyond July 1 will be a big help to businessmen who, otherwise, would suffer because:

The public, knowing furs and jewelry could be bought cheaper after July 1 when the tax went off, would wait till then to buy.

But there's something else: Knutson wants to cut income taxes 20 per cent in 1947. That would take about $3,000,000,000 away from the government.

If it lost the $3,000,000,000 in income taxes and $1,500,000,000 in luxury taxes, it would be out $4,500,000,000 in 1947.

Yet the government needs plenty of money to run. Congress might not go for both kinds of cuts.

But if the luxury taxes stay, Knutson's fellow Republicans might be willing to cut income taxes a bit, although maybe not 20 per cent.

POLIO EPIDEMIC IN UNITED STATES FOR PAST YEAR IS CITED

Embry Ferguson, chairman of the Navarro county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said today the epidemic of 1946 was the worst in 30 years, exceeded only by the great epidemic of 1916—worst in recorded history of the United States.

In 1916, 27,363 cases were reported by 28 states. In 1946, up to Oct. 26, the nation reported 22,371 cases. This was almost double the 11,463 cases in 1945. The annual drive for Dimes campaign is currently being conducted and will end Jan. 30.

Roughly, that is an average for 1946 of one patient in 6,000. In Navarro county last year we had ten cases and our population is approximately 60,000. Our county average corresponds with the national average, but we may not be as fortunate next year.

Ferguson, chairman of the local committee on the March of Dimes, urges all to donate freely because of the severe depletion of the national fund. According to information received from Basil O'Connor, national president, the reserve emergency fund of $4,000,000 was exhausted last year and another $1,500,000 drawn from the research fund to meet the unexpected number of cases.

The committee this year is collecting funds by a "Wishing Well" placed at the corner of Beaton and Collin streets, direct mail cards, and school cards. Similar campaigns are being conducted in other communities of the county.

Contributions by mail should be addressed "March of Dimes, Box 463, Corsicana, Texas."

Officers were re-elected for 1947 at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corsicana Federal Savings and Loan association Wednesday afternoon.

H. D. Johnson, secretary-treasurer, said the association enjoyed a "good year."

F. C. Paul and Johnson were re-elected directors. Their terms expired. Holdover directors are Will Thompson, A. F. Mitchell, J. O. Burke, F. A. Pierce and Mrs. A. C. Barley.

Officers re-elected are Will Thompson, president, A. F. Mitchell, F. C. Paul and J. O. Burke, vice presidents; H. D. Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

TEXAS TODAY

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

What Texas needs is a good five cent definition of "The Rio Grande Valley."

El Paso says "from here on down." Laredo says "we're in the valley." Del Rio and Eagle Pass insist they're part of it. Brownsville, Harlingen and McAllen says "right here period."

They're all correct. But nine out of ten Texans agree with the Brownsville-Harlingen-McAllen definition.

To most Texans "the valley" means the lush, semi-tropical citrus growing area dotted with palm trees and spattered with poinsettias and bougainvilleas.

Technically, of course, the majority is wrong as usual. The Rio Grande Valley extends from above El Paso clear down to the mouth of the Rio Grande below Brownsville.

But there is as much difference between climate, crops and terrain in Brownsville and El Paso as there is between Miami and New York. Calling the whole works "the valley" is confusing to everyone.

What to do? That's the problem. El Paso, Laredo and the others won't secede. El Paso, for example, has a claim staked to the title because the U. S. Weather Bureau refers to El Paso as "the Rio Grande Valley," the Brownsville area as "South Texas." Laredo has citrus, truck crops, and Bermuda onions to strengthen its claim. Geographically, the Valley is the valley.

Weather Is Varied

A person looking at a map, like an advertising man did not long ago, seeing El Paso in the valley. This particular man whipped up an attractive layout that appeared in most national magazines. It emphasized heat. This picture showed mountains and a type of cactus not seen in the lower stretches of the valley. It gave the impression the valley was all like that.

And during the recent cold spell, a story was carried telling about a gas shortage in the valley. People all over Texas asked relatives in the lower valley if they needed help. The valley referred to in this case was in the Eagle Pass area.

It all goes to show that some common definition is needed. Should it be broken up into Lower Valley, Central Valley and Upper Valley? That would upset El Paso, where they have what they call both the upper and lower valley right there. Should the Rio Grande area from Rio Grande City south be "the valley" and the rest "the border"? We can hear the howls from here.

New Names Studied

Some time ago the Brownsville-Harlingen-McAllen area tried to solve the problem by calling itself (1) the Delta, (2) the Magic Valley, or (3) the Garden of Golden Grapefruit.

The delta title fell flat, although that portion of Texas is a delta as rich as the Nile. It is not a valley as many picture a valley, with hills visible to the right and left.

The other two titles were both too long and sounded too much like chamber of commerce promotion—which they were.

Maybe the Texas legislature should pass a law, or maybe it should be put to a vote of the people in a special election.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stroube have returned to Los Angeles where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

CORSICANA AND WACO TILT TOPS OF CAGE PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

All cage teams in the city swing into play Friday night. Corsicana meets Waco here, Navarro Junior College plays Clifton there, and State Home school tangles with Richland at the Home gym.

Final tuning up maneuvers are on the docket for this yearling Corsicana Tiger cagers this afternoon in Junior High school gym on the eve of the important Waco tussle.

Navarro Junior College Bulldogs will unveil a final practice period at the same time in the YMCA gym in preparation for the third game of conference play. The Scarlet and White, winless thus far in central zone competition, meets Clifton Junior College Friday night in Clifton.

With a 37-26 win over the Waxahachie Indians, the Tigers will face the premier team of the district in the high flying Bengale from Waco. Paced by John DeWitt, long and lanky pivot man, an all-district selection last year, and Hollis Chatham, a top flight guard, the Waco five has bowled over opposition in floor play this season.

In comparison of scores, the Tigers face a momentous task in halting the McLennan county quintet. Waco defeated Bryan by a large margin and Bryan downed Corsicana by a much larger margin.

A brighter side of the picture for Corsicana is the fact the locals were playing their first game against Bryan whereas the Bronco and Bengale had been going at it for over a month.

Great improvement in Hal Murphy and Gerald Bowen strengthened the five in the Indian tilt. With three games in the experience bag, the locals are a much improved quintet, but will be faced with a tall, veteran opponent who has a penchant for sudden death under the basket.

Navarro Junior college, loser to Hill Country and Temple, faces another unknown quantity in the five from Clifton Junior college as it makes the rounds in conference play.

Minus the services of Charlie Smith in the Temple game proved a deciding factor as the Scarlet and White bowed by a 27-23 score. Smith, high scoring forward, is a problematical starter in the Clifton game.

Short on altitude, the Corsicana Air Force school representative has had to rely on clever ball handling and speed to compete with much taller opposition.

The Corsicana-Waco game will be preceded by a "B" team contest starting at 6 p. m. The main event is slated to begin at 7:30 p. m. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

State Home Lads, currently breezing through District 30-B competition, will meet an average team from Richland, with the girls game slated to begin at 7 p. m. and the boys game to follow shortly after. The Lads have lost only one game, that coming in a split series with Corsicana high school.

Waco Tigers Down Ennis Lions, 41-20

WACO, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Waco Tiger basketballers smothered the Ennis Lions here Wednesday night, 41-20, with James Jones, forward, setting the scoring pace with 18 points and DeWitt, center, adding 12. Wilson, Ennis forward, led his mates with 10 points.

Waco was ahead throughout the game and never was in trouble. In a curtain-raiser attraction, Waco B team nipped out a scrapping McGregor High five, 37-35.

CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS USE SMUDGE POTS SAVE ORCHARDS

By The Associated Press.

Smudgepots were smoking in Southern California orchards today as citrus fruit growers attempted to save crops in the face of below freezing weather.

With groves being artificially heated to combat temperatures around 25 degrees, the Federal Fruit Frost Service predicted even colder weather for tonight.

Although the temperature drop brought the winter's most severe cold in that area, officials of citrus associations expected little if any damage to their rich crops.

With the exception of isolated, exposed regions, most fruit ranches are equipped for concentrated smudging.

The lowest Southern California temperature, 20 degrees, was reported outside the citrus district in the Mojave desert town of Daguerre.

Friskish, fluctuating winds—which brought small craft warnings out along the Pacific coast—kept temperatures well above the danger mark in some sections.

Across the country, in Pinal, Tenn., another freak wind, described as a "spot cyclone" whirled four negroes yesterday and razed the homes of six families.

Northern Minnesota, Eastern North Dakota, Southern Idaho and Northern Nevada were the coldest parts of the country with sub-zero readings, including 15 below at Bemidji, Minn., 9 at Pocatello, Idaho. Temperatures moderated in Montana, Washington and Oregon.

The weather bureau reported light snow in some Midwest areas with three inches at Dubuque, Ia. There were scattered showers over Central Texas and the lower Mississippi valley.

World Record $50.50 Paid For Herefords

DENVER, Jan. 16.—(AP)—A world record price of $50.50 a hundredweight for a grand champion carload of Hereford feeder cattle was paid today at the National Western Livestock Show by Martin Schaefer of York, Penn.

Schaefer bought the carload, which weighed 8,300 pounds and sold for a total of $4,191.50, from W. D. Sidley of Encampment, Wyo.

Previous high for grand champion feeder cattle was established last year at $50.25 a hundredweight.

Survivors Of War Dead May Lose Social Security

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—The Social Security Administration said today that many survivors of some 40,000 dead war veterans will lose benefits due them unless they file necessary claims by Feb. 10.

The families are those of veterans who died after discharge but before Aug. 10, 1946.

Such families who are not eligible for veterans compensation or pensions and who meet other requirements of the law are entitled to social security survivor payments retroactive to the time of the veteran's death. Families of veterans dying within three years after discharge are entitled to special social security benefits when not eligible for veterans benefits. In the case of deaths occurring after Aug. 9, 1946, the benefits are retroactive to a maximum of three months prior to the date of application.

Social security officials estimated that about 40,000 veterans died prior to Aug. 10, 1946, and were eligible for benefits.

COMMISSIONERS HEAR PROPOSED HIRING OF
ENGINEER DISCUSSEDJ. N. EDENS APPEARS
BEFORE COURT IN INTER-EST OF ROAD PROGRAM

Navarro county commissioners court Monday afternoon discussed the proposed hiring of an engineer as provided for in the budget for 1947 but did not reach any agreement to pass any order in the matter. J. N. Edens and J. F. Adams met with the court and urged that the engineer be hired as set up in the budget.

Dr. Will Miller was re-elected as county health officer for the ensuing two-year term and his salary was set at $900 for 1947. Dr. Miller is the acting director of the Navarro County Health Unit.

The court also passed a resolution ordering the advertising for bids for a county depository for the next two years, to be opened Feb. 1. All members of the court were present.

Tells of Mass Meeting

Edens outlined the county-wide mass-meeting held last year, that he believed that was finally adopted by the meeting whereby an engineer and a unit system would be employed and a system of roads started. He said that the court was asked to levy the 15-cent maintenance tax for five years and request the Legislature to pass a law levying one-cent additional tax on gasoline to go to the county for the same purpose.

Thinks Court Obligated

"I think the court is obligated morally to follow through," Edens declared and pointed out that such a program would benefit all. He stressed his assertion that the employing of an engineer did not take authority out of responsible officials. Edens said that the old court set this procedure up in the budget adopted in 1946 for 1947.

Much Opposition

Commissioner J. C. McMullan of Precinct 2 said there was much opposition to the hiring of an engineer among his people, and an engineer lay out, plan, maintain, construct, farm-to-market roads. He said this public was under the impression that this was to be done, and urged the court to carry out the provisions.

Engineer Required

Adams said the State and Federal governments will require engineers before much aid would be allocated to Navarro county after the present three-year system has been completed.

Turning to another part of his appearance before the court, Edens, who is president of the Corsicana Livestock and Agriculture Show, outlined several miles east of Corsicana on Highway 26, outlining the organization and construction of the fair. He enlisted the support of the court, not by money, but moral support of the institution. He said that too much of the time the huge and valuable plant was not being used for any purpose and it was his desire that it be used for the benefit of the public.

More Filing

J. C. Gaster, district clerk, asked for additional filing space in his office, and it was stated that Vernon Harwell, county clerk, also needed additional cabinets, etc. for filing purposes.

The bond of E. R. Jackson, constable at Richland, in the sum of $10,000, was approved.

The $5,000 bond of Edgar Hutchins and L. E. Weaver, delinquent tax attorneys, was approved.

(In the round-table discussion of the engineer question by the court it was mentioned several times

CORSICANAN OFFICER OF NEW UNIVERSITY CITY PLANNING BODY

ASSOCIATION FORMED TO AID COMMUNITIES IN PROGRESSIVE WORK

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 15.—(Sp.)—A significant step in integrating community planning in Texas has been taken with organization of the Texas Association for Community Planning, Research and Education at the University of Texas.

Composed of graduate students, faculty members, and alumni of the department of architecture, the organization will function to coordinate research at the graduate level of students interested in community planning, and will work with various communities.

Hugo Leipziger-Pearce, associate professor of architecture, and coordinator of community planning for the Division of Extension is president of the new association.

John Wassell of Corsicana is vice president; John Zemanek of Needville is treasurer, and Mrs. Billie Parson of Austin, is secretary.

A member of the executive council is David Vega-Christie of Lima, Peru, a member of the Peruvian City Planning Institute who is attending the University of Texas. The Institute in Lima is attempting a program similar to the one now being done here.

Other members of the council are representatives from the schools and colleges of the University, including those from economics, architecture, government, sociology, and engineering.

Many Courses Conducted
A plan for such an association was presented last spring before the National Association of Planning Officials at a meeting in New York, Leipziger said, and the University joins other leading universities such as Harvard, Yale, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Chicago, in taking up the problem of planning.

"The need for a correlation of graduate studies on an academic level is recognized," Leipziger said, "and the association also recognizes the need for enlightenment in community planning. This new group will give further support to the work already begun by the Division of Extension."

DISTRICT BASKETBALL VICTORY IS FIRST OF '47 FOR CORSICANA

"B" FIVE ALSO TAKES WIN, 23-19 TO MAKE EVENING FULL SUCCESS

By GROVER HEIMAN
Sun Sports Staff
Coming to life in the second half, Corsicana's Tigers gained the first District 10-A win of the year by downing Waxahachie 37-26 Tuesday night on the Junior High school hardwoods.

The B team made a clean sweep of the evening with a 23-19 victory.

Still weak on under the basket play, the local five was sparked in the point making department by little Bill Reed, letterman forward, who sank seven throws through the hoops for 14 points.

Milton Boatman, an all-district selection last year, led the visitors with 14 points.

The game opened slowly with the Tigers trailing 7-3 at the end of the first quarter, but deceptive Bill Davis, the other letterman forward, found the range and sank three field goals and a gratis toss to lead the way in the second quarter for a half time margin of 18-14.

Tigers in Lead
In the third canto, the Tigers forged ahead with a sparkling Reed to move into a 2-16 lead.

The fourth period was played on even terms as the visitors gained nine points and the Tigers garnered ten.

The win was the first in since competition for the Tigers since the lone Globe victory last January. It marked the third straight victory for the Corsicana team.

Corsicana now has a .500 percentage with a loss on the record to Globe.

Corsicana proved itself a better team in the second half when it calmly went about hacking away at the Indian defense with precision ball handling and accurate shooting. Considered the darkhorse in the district race, the Tigers showed a world of improvement.

Gerald Bowen, tall guard, found the range last night to add a world of strength to the local five as the Tigers began working in the region of the basket.

B Team Won
The Tigers made a clean sweep of the evening as the B team took command of its game and walked away with a handy 23-19 win after the Paposos started a stirring last canto drive that fell short.

Max Carter led the locals with six field goals and one free toss for high honors with 13 points. Scott of the visitors with 12 was second high.

Fat Saving By Housewives Urged
Even though the war is over, wartime economies are still being demanded of housewives, and one of the chief of these is the matter of food. Housewives are urged to plan carefully, avoid all waste and take all fats to the butcher.

Recommendations of the department of agriculture for fat salvage are as follows:
1. Skim meat stock, the basis of most soups, before it goes in the kettle and remove the additional grease, which will come to the surface during cooking, before serving.

2. Pour off the drippings from the roasting pan if cooking turkey, goose, duck or chicken. Before cooking beef, ham, veal or pork, cut off the excess fat and melt it down.

3. Skim excess grease from the gravy before it goes to the table.
4. Save and melt down dinner plate scraps, for no amount of fat in gristle or gravy is too small to save.

Married Tuesday.
James Thomas Burkes of Odessa and Betty Jo Bunch of Corsicana were married Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 14, at the courthouse. Judge W. H. Johnson performed the ceremony.

Oil Tank Fire In Mildred Community
The fire department answered a call at 6:30 a. m. Wednesday to the Mildred community where a battery tank had become ignited.

Chief H. P. Bivins reported. The tank is the property of Stroube and Stroube Co. Latest reports Wednesday indicated the tank was still burning. The local department could not extinguish the blaze because of lack of proper chemical equipment.

Chief Bivins stated the burning oil was coming from seepage at the seams. Cause of the blaze has not been determined. A considerable amount of oil is said to be stored in the tank.
